

Community Waitakere Training Courses

Building a workplace culture that inspires & motivates!

Date: 12th February 2013

Time: 9.30am to 12.30pm

Place: Unitec, Waitakere Campus, Room , Building 510, Room 1043

Cost: $45.00

One of our biggest competitive advantages as a sector is our ability to ignite in people a passion around a mission and a positive work environment can mean the difference between success and failure for an organisation.

This workshop will look at

- Creating positive workplace cultures in NFP organisations
- Inherent challenges in NFP organisations
- The research behind employee or volunteer 'engagement'
- Dealing with toxic personalities
- Strategies to ensure you get the best from the people you lead.

Facilitator: Aly McNicoll

Aly McNicoll works with not for profit organisations as a trainer and consultant. She was a founding lecturer on the Graduate Diploma in Not for Profit Management at Unitec NZ and has a particular interest in coaching, mentoring and leadership. She is a regular presenter at international conferences including the American Society for Training & Development and European Mentoring & Coaching Council conferences.
