

Women, Children and the Family Court Forum

Is the new emphasis on mediation working well?

How can the Family Court be improved to ensure justice for women and children?

Room 404, Engineering Building, 20 Symonds St, University of Auckland

Tuesday 9 September 2014

10am —12 noon

Chair: The Rt Hon Sir Edmund Thomas QC

Speakers:

Dr Vivienne Elizabeth, Sr. Lecturer of Sociology, University of Auckland

National Party - Scott Simpson, MP, Chair, Justice and Electoral Committee

Labour Party - Andrew Little, MP and Spokesperson for Justice

Green Party - David Clendon, MP and Spokesperson for Justice

Māori Party - Susan Cullen, candidate

Mana Internet Party - Miriam Pierard, candidate

All welcome - there will be plenty of time for your questions and thoughts

Organised by a partnership of the Women's Health Action Trust and Auckland Women's Centre

