

Preventing Violence against Women
Te Araitanga Tukino Whare Tangata

Agency Manager Vacancy - Full time role

If you are you passionate about working with women we would like to hear from you.

We are seeking a dynamic and experienced person to lead our organisation

This person will have a demonstrated history of success in:

- Management experience including people management
- Strategic leadership ability
- Financial acumen: setting budgets and overview of accounts
- Competence in managing a team/small organisation, preferably in the NGO sector
- Expertise in working with government and not for profit sector organisations and networks
- Ability to negotiate and manage funding contracts
- Pursuing philanthropic funding and grants
- Ability to represent the organisation in multiple forums
- Knowledge & understanding of the nature and effects of domestic violence.
- Training and/or experience of working with abused women
- Cultural/ethnic sensitivity and awareness of Te Tiriti O Waitangi/Treaty of Waitangi principles.
- A full drivers licence.

Applications close 28 October 2016

Inner City Women's Group is a domestic violence prevention agency based in Auckland - established in 1988.

We provide education and support programmes for women in:

- Freedom from abuse and violence
- Women and anger
- Assertiveness, communication, confidence building skills and strategies
- Parenting support for women affected by domestic violence
- Prevention and violence education
- Coping with the aftermath of trauma.

We are a well-established community agency with a highly skilled team who enjoy working in a stimulating and supportive environment

Application – confidential

Send short CV + covering letter to:

email: deb.icwg@xtra.co.nz

Ring 09-360 4070 for further information